1. An adult hides the clue cards around the house – each one at the place the previous card shows.
2. At the last place there is a lucky charm (e.g. a marzipan or chocolate pig) and the lucky medals.
3. The children get the start card. Whoever recognizes the place runs there and finds the next card.
4. Preschoolers use the picture-only cards, school kids use the riddle cards.
5. The blank cards are for your own hiding places: just draw the place.

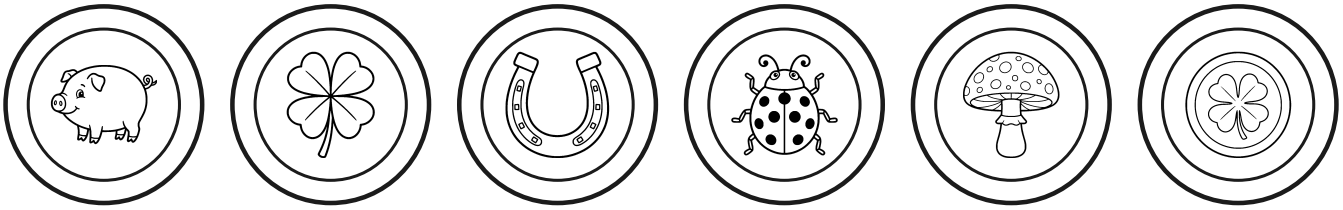

START – The hunt begins! Where is the next card?
